2 Definitions

- 2.1 A is any member of the Chapel Choir under the age of 18.
- 3. Special Provisions
- 3.1 Application of these Provisions

The provisions for special recruitment and training procedures and for the conduct of Disclosure and Barring Service checks are applied only to staff and Fellows working with children or vulnerable adults. The College Council reviews the application of these provisions from time to time, to take account of any changed arrangements in the College, new risks and/ or new legislation.

- 3.2 Recruitment and Training of staff involved in the care and education of choristers
- 3.2.1 The following procedures will be used for all candidates to whom the College offers a position which will bring them into regular unsupervised contact with children or vulnerable adults:

Applicants will be asked to complete an application form.

Identity will be carefully checked and applicants will be required to provide photographic documentation to confirm identity.

Applicants will be asked to provide original documentation to provide proof of qualifications.

Show favouritism to any individual.

Rely on the good name of the College to protect you.

Believe that allegations of inappropriate behaviour never happen to

Take a chance when common sense, policy and practice suggest a more prudent approach.

In addition to this code of conduct, the following guidance is issued to all student members of the choir, with specific reference to choristers:

You must not make any contact with choristers or their families for reasons unrelated to your work as a member of the choir.

On no account should you give a chorister a gift or do anything which could be in any way considered a bribe or inducement to enter into a relationship or give rise to any false allegations of improper conduct against the individual.

There must be no social media contact between adult members and junior members of the choir. This includes being with choristers on Facebook etc.

If you are invited to participate in social activities by chorister families, you are welcome to accept such invitations, but you are asked to inform the Choir and Chapel Office, for the purposes of your own protection.
