How we use your personal information

Jesus College Intellectual Forum

terms, we use your information to manage the event(s) you are attending, including dinners of the specific event, which might require you to provide it on successive occasions.

C. providing you with details about future events.

While we retain your contact information, we will contact you about future events we believe may be of interest to you, providing you have given us explicit consent to do so. Consent may be withdrawn at any time.

D. fulfilling our legal obligations.

The College is required to keep for 12 months the names and nationalities of all those staying in accommodation. In the case of nationals outside of the UK, Republic of Ireland and the Commonwealth, we must also keep a record of your passport details and next destination. The College is also required to keep details relating to any financial transaction for a period of seven years.

We also operate CCTV on our site, which will capture footage. Our CCTV policy can be viewed here

We will not share personal information with third parties unless it is necessary for us in order to provide the services we have agreed. This may include, for example, providing information about dietary requirements to outside caterers, making room and transportation bookings on your behalf, or providing relevant information to partners where events are co-organised. If you have concerns or queries about any of these purposes, or how we communicate with you, please contact us at the address given above.

You have the right: to ask us for access to, rectification or erasure of your information; to restrict processing (pending correction or deletion); to object to communications or direct marketing; and to ask for the transfer of your information electronically to a third party (data portability). Some of these rights are not automatic, and we reserve the right to discuss with you why we might not comply with a request from you to exercise them.

You retain the right at all times to lodge a complaint about our management of your personal https://ico.org.uk/concerns/
